N.J.A.C. 19:46-1.28A.   Standards for the approval of slot machines

H.   Skill Feature is a play on a slot machine in which a patron must make a choice how to proceed in a game, but does not include a choice in which the patron has won a variable pay award and has an option to risk it for another variable pay award (strategy feature).

A game with a skill feature will have a theoretical return of 85% or greater unless it automatically discloses to the patron the choice representing optimal strategy. If optimum strategy is provided, the following text (for a card game) must be displayed on the game: Cards marked hold indicate a recommended strategy but not guaranteed optimum return.

Game is in compliance:

Yes ☐   No ☐   N/A ☐

I.   Strategy Feature means a play on a slot machine in which a patron must make a choice whether to accept a variable pay award or risk it for another variable pay award. Game must automatically disclose for the patron sufficient information to choose or the choice representing the optimal strategy. Once the highest award has been selected, the patron will not be able to risk the award for another strategy choice.

Game is in compliance:

Yes ☐   No ☐   N/A ☐

J.   Game within a Game feature. This submission is in compliance with all prevailing rules concerning this issue.

Yes ☐   No ☐   N/A ☐

K.   Extended Play Feature. This submission is in compliance with all prevailing rules concerning this issue.

Yes ☐   No ☐   N/A ☐

L.   Scripting is a method of displaying randomly selected variable pay awards. Generally, the representation to the patron is in the form of a series of results that, in fact, are preselected outcomes for the associated variable pay result. Scripting on a slot machine shall not:

    a.   Include any "no award" results;
    b.   Display any unachievable results; or
    c.   Be otherwise deceptive.

Game is in compliance:

Yes ☐   No ☐   N/A ☐
